RACE TRACK, MONMOUTH PARK.
Aug. 2.—Not more than 3,000 persons saw the races here to-day. The card was poor, and the sport promised to be rather tame.

The track still bore evidences of Tuesday's storm, it being heavy and sticky in spots.

The weather was all that could be desired.

Only three started in the first race, and two of the trio managed to make quite an interesting affair of it. These were Banquet and Comanche. They got rid of Lady Pulsifer in the first quarter, and it was head and head to the stretch. Sima and Tatal then sat down to ride, and a pretty struggle resulted in a length win for the latter.

Lady Pulsifer was beaten off.
Matt Byrnes was the favorite in the second. The talent and the bookies all got wind of the fact that he had been doing well in his work, and that he was going to win. He was not disappointed.

Lucky Dog, with Tatal up, captured the race in a hand drive. This made Tatal's second win. Mimac Queen was as usual, third.

Stonenell was the favorite in the third race. He won notwithstanding Tatal's poor riding. This jockey lost the heat of the start, but immediately took Stonenell back, under a choking pull.

Rampage got a good lead, and at the end Tatal was forced to ride hard to win by a head. Young Arion, the outsider, was never in the hunt and Stonenell's win made the third victory for Tatal.

WINNERS AT BRIGHTON.

Laughing Water, at 20 to 1, Captures the First Event To-Day.
RACE TRACK, BRIGHTON BEACH.
Aug. 2.—A capital card and beautiful weather proved to be magnets that tur-fgoers could not resist, and a very large crowd turned out at the track by the sea to-day.

A delightful breeze swept across the track and made things very comfortable. The track was in superb condition.

Not a little amusement was caused by a letter received by Secretary Sam this morning, and that gentleman says he has found the most honest man living.
The letter was signed "W. W." and says that ten years ago the writer attended the races at Brighton, when the price of admission was 25 cents, and that he slipped in and did not pay his way. He says that he has since been converted, and instead of a dollar bill to pay for the day's racing he enjoyed ten years ago.

Today's card was rich, both in quality and quantity, and promised the best kind of sport.

The first race, Handicap, at five furlongs, and fourth on the card, commenced at 2 o'clock. The favorite, Laughing Water, was ridden by J. J. Jones, and he was not disappointed. He won by a length, and the bookies all got wind of the fact that he was going to win.

start was made, and he was not disappointed. He won by a length, and the BIG FIRE AT YONKERS.

Flames Envelope a Square in the Business Centre of the City.

Block of Stores Damaged to the Extent of About $100,000.

The Blaze Under Control After a Fierce Struggle.

YONKERS, Aug. 2.—About 1:30 this afternoon fire broke out in Benjamin's dry-goods store, on Warburton avenue, this city. The flames spread rapidly and soon communicated to adjoining property.

The firemen quickly responded, but in spite of their efforts the flames continued to spread, and in less than half an hour the fire had reached the following business places:

W. S. Harbour, grocer; M. Adler, hardware; C. S. Ferguson, auctioneer; Phil McCann, butcher; Mrs. Benjamin, fancy goods; A. C. Tompkins, coal and wood; M. S. Walsh, printer; L. T. Gale, hardware; — Hicks, candy; Fred Cook, laundry; A. C. Harman, furniture dealer, and R. J. Dick & Co., dry goods.

These places of business were all in the square in the business centre of the city on the block bounded by Dock and Main streets and Warburton avenue and another street.

The ground floor of the buildings were used for stores, while over the latter were dwelling apartments. Many families will be rendered homeless. In some cases the tenants lost all their effects.

At 2 P. M. the fire was still burning on Dock street, and the loss was estimated at over $100,000.

At 4 o'clock the fire was under control, and no further damage was reported.

TO BE PAID SEMI-MONTHLY.
Change for Postal Clerks—Ransom Appointed to Station F.

Postmaster Dayton announced three appointments to minor positions in the Post-Office late this afternoon.

Jeremiah Murray becomes foreman of the cleaners, at a salary of $40 a year.
Mr. Murray has been for a long time employed in the Drexel Building, Wall and Broad streets, and is credited to the First Assembly District.

John McNeill, removed, McNeill was an appointee of Mr. Van Cort, and was one of the ex-Postmaster's lieutenants in the old Seventh, now the Post-Office.

The other appointments were of charactermen, Mrs. A. Christian, of Columbia street, gets the place of characterman, and Mrs. Hand have not yet been classified.

The postal clerks are to be paid semi-monthly hereafter. The new rule goes into effect on the first of this month.

Thomas G. H. and J. C. Williams, clerks in the Directory Bureau of the Civil-Service Examining Board had several appointments to-day for the first time.

SUICIDE IN A HOTEL.

She Was Well Connected and Had an Income.

Supposed to Have Been Married, but Was Not.

Miss Maria Bardwell, a young woman, twenty-eight years old, whose home is in Boston, committed suicide in the Hotel States, Hotel Park and Fulton streets, sometime between midnight and 7 o'clock this morning, by shooting herself in the head with a thirty-two caliber revolver.

The body was found lying on the bed in room 23, on the third floor, dressed only in a night gown, at 12:30 this afternoon, by the assistant clerk.

The chambermaid had tried to get into the room several times during the morning, but found the door locked.

At 12:15 she knocked loudly, and receiving no response other than an echo from within, she reported the matter at the office, and the assistant clerk was sent up to investigate.

He opened the door with a pass-key, and saw Miss Bardwell lying across the foot of the bed, with her feet hanging over the side-pipe. The pillows were saturated with blood from a hole in the right temple.

The revolver, a brand-new one, lay in a fold of the nightdress. The thumb and finger of the right hand were powder stained, but, strangely enough, there were no powder burns on the hand.

The woman had jumped for the terrible deed with the utmost precaution and care. Her linen was new, and evidently had not been washed since leaving the hands of the seamstress.

The two pillows were laid upon the other in the middle of the bed, under the footboard, so that when the bullet went into the head, the brain, the head would fall upon them.

No message of any character could be found in the room, and the assistant clerk, as far as could be ascertained this afternoon, her intention to any relative was not known.

Miss Bardwell went to the hotel at 3:30 last night, and registered as Miss M.
Bardwell. She was alone, and the hotel clerk said that she had not seen her before.

According to the clerk, Miss Bardwell had a room on the third floor, and she entered it. At 7 o'clock she sent two dispatches, one to a Mrs. Murray, and the other to a Mr. Murray, who lived in the hotel.

She remained in the hotel until 9:30.
She did not appear to be very sick, and she did not seem to be in any trouble, and at times appeared very cheerful.

She corresponded with her twin brother, Benjamin Bardwell, who lived in the hotel, and she had a letter from him, and she had a letter from him, and she had a letter from him.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Murray, two telegrams were sent to Boston afternoon following the brother and the girl, and the girl was found in the hotel.

The remains were removed to Morley's undertaking rooms, 6 Greenwich street, and the body was taken to Boston or the arrival of her brother or guardian.

WANTS TO OPEN THE DEFAULT.

Russell Harrison's Ceylon Planters' Tea Company Badly in Debt.

Supreme Court Justice O'Brien, in Chambers, to-day reserved decision on a motion to open a default taken by Watson & Farr, who entered judgment against the Ceylon Planters' Tea Company last June for $25,000, which it was alleged they had advanced to the company.

The company is hopelessly in debt, and all of its officers have resigned. Russell Harrison was formerly the treasurer of the company, and he was the one who was granted against the property of the company, about the time the company was in the hands of the company.

The company denies that the money for the default was advanced to the company, and it is claimed that the money was loaned to it, but that the advances were made simply as a contrabution to the capital of the company, and that Watson & Farr were to receive pay in the profits of the company.

MONEY STOLEN AT A FIRE.
Mrs. Crowe's House Burned Down at Hackensack, N. J.

HACKENSACK, N. J., Aug. 2.—At 11 o'clock this morning the frame dwelling house of Mrs. Crowe was destroyed by fire. The damage was $200. There was no loss of life, and the cause of the fire is supposed to be a defective fuse.

During the progress of the fire a large quantity of money was burned, and as many people were in the building at the time, it is thought that it was a very serious prostration, brought on by the excitement.

NO MARKET FOR BOSTON BONDS.
Put One Small Bid on Proposals for a $1,000,000 City Loan.

BOSTON, Aug. 2.—City Treasurer Turner, on opening proposals for a $1,000,000 city loan, found but one bid, and that for ten coupon bonds at par ($1,000) and accrued interest.

The advertisement for the loan has occupied a prominent place in the newspapers, and it is thought that the failure to receive a large number of bids is due to the fact that the loan is for a long term.

COLLECTOR SMITH ARRESTED.
The South Orange Official Charged

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 2.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon Moses P. Smith, the South Orange tax collector accused of defalcation, was arrested.

His shortage is said to be $15,000.
Smith is a native of New Jersey, and he has been in the service of the South

THE RACING AT SARATOGA.

William T. Wins the Saratoga

Form, His Owners and Jockey Bliss Ruled Off the Course.

SARATOGA RACE TRACK, Aug. 2.— For the first time since this meeting began the Saratoga people were blessed with a clear sky and an atmosphere fit for the occasion.

The morning followed by clearing and storming hot weather, of which the clouds and humid air were the cause.

The advent of the Harman show today brought large crowds from the neighboring villages, and an unusual number of persons took advantage of the opportunity to make their money.

The race for which the Harman show was the main attraction was the Saratoga Stakes, for two-year-olds, and it was a very interesting race.

The race was won by William T., owned by J. W. Harman, and ridden by J. W. Harman.

TALK OF THE TURF.

Three Race Tracks in This Vicinity Will Be in Full Blast This Fall.

CLIFTON'S GOOD PROSPECTS.

Jockey Veach Ruled Off at Saratoga for Pulling Southerner.

As predicted by "The Evening World" a few days ago, the Clifton Jockey Club had no difficulty in securing a license.
The action of the New Jersey State Board of Pardons in pardoning the Messrs. Engeman for their offense against the law several years ago, no doubt influenced the Passaic County Freeholders to grant the necessary permission to race. The vote stood 11 to 1 in favor of the Jockey Club, and the license allows the Club to race three times, the annual fee to be $100.

The Monmouth people no doubt uttered a few "hoos-woos" when they learned that Clifton would reopen its gates.
They had figured on sixteen clear days after Brighton ended, but now they find that the opposition will extend clear to the end of the meeting. If the Monmouth folks had not been so greedy and grasping they would undoubtedly have had a good season. The three months' dates, and laughed at the brightenings' protests. In the racing world there is no sympathy for Monmouth, even though they have had the worst end of the game.

The Hudson County Jockey Club people will also grumble a little regarding the action of the State Board of Pardons.
The Club has a long track, and the track can fight Guttenberg with its own weapons—the free badges. Besides, railroad transportation over the Erie to Clifton is far more attractive than a trip on the "sewing-machine" railroad, and the electric cars, as a fact, are more attractive than the three winter months' dates.

Guttenberg will open on Sept. 2, and will race every day. Clifton needs the day next and continues indefinitely.
Through September and October three races will be run, and the Clifton people will not be far off in their prediction that the average race-goer will gladly welcome the three winter months, when the race-tracks must remain closed.

Secretary Brewster of Washington Park was a visitor at Monmouth yesterday. He presented Garrison, Dugan, Lambert and Overton with notifications of their fines at the Chicago track on Friday Day.

Swash rode for his new employer, Pittsburg Park, for the first time yesterday. He straddled Wormser, and Lambert and Overton with notations of their fines at the Chicago track on Friday Day.

Lifeboat was withdrawn from the second race yesterday, because the race was run around the lower turn. Mr. Galway waited the race run the reverse way.

There were eight entries in the first race yesterday, and all but Sir Lancelot were ruled off the track, so that there was $200 to be given to second and third horses.

An offer of $4,000 was recently made for Adile, but Mr. Lordford refused to part with the mare.

Senator Grady cost $200 as a yearling, and Tenacious was bought for $100.
The former is a cracking good colt, while the latter is never a bad horse, but at the plough. That the purchase of yearlings is more or less of a lottery is evident.

Jockey Veach was ruled off at Saratoga yesterday for pulling Southerner.
He was ruled off for pulling Southerner.
He was ruled off for pulling Southerner.

Albert Cooper has turned over nearly all of the Kentucky horses that were in his charge to Billy Lakeland. Hyderabad, Riverside and Hornpipe were among the lot. Cooper was not at all put out at losing his comfortable berth.

Duggett's term of suspension was over yesterday. He had the mount on Sirocco in the first race, and won away off, none of the other horses being able to touch him. Watterton has been taken back to Brighton Beach.

Tatal was given permission to ride Nomad as he pleased yesterday, but could do no better than finish last.

MacKintosh opened at 3 to 1 in the last race, and closed at 5 to 1. He cannot run a yard in July.

Foxhall Keene was present at Brighton yesterday to see the Clifton Jockey Club race. "Foxie" had quite a good-sized bet on her.

Had Blitzen been able to keep up with Geraldine during the early part of yesterday's race, he would have made the great springer hustle.

Judge Newman and his friends won heavily over Beas MacDuff's victory yesterday. They got as good as 15 to 1 for their bet.
